Coming soon: a slimmed-down Robin Quivers

NOT only can Dr. Roni DeLuz's new book "21 Pounds in 21 Days: The Martha's Vineyard Diet Detox," which was written with James Hester, get you into bikini shape in three weeks, the diet guru's Infrared machine wraps took Howard Stern sidekick Artie from a 1.5 rating from June's Penthouse Pet Kimberly Williams to a 7 from Dr. Roni. The hood doctor was doing an on-air, 21-day detox with Robin Quivers on

Sebron's birthday concert a feast for the ears

Caroline Sebron, a highly accomplished mezzo soprano,

Monday when Artie decided to get into the act. Lying on the couch for 30 minutes wrapped in the Infrared pads, sweating toxins out of Artie's body, Howard told the single diet doc: "Now that he's detoxing, Artie's lost five chins." Dr. Roni has moved in with Robin for the diet. Robin will be 21 pounds lighter in 21 days.

THE Teddy Pendergrass Alliance (TPA), a non-profit

Saint John was her excellent vocal partner in a duet from organization that helps people with spinal cord injuries (SCI) rebuild their lives, has announced the participants for the elaborate, star-studded gala, the premier Black Music Month event—Teddy 25: A Celebration of Life, Hope and Possibilities—to be held June 10 at Verizon Hall at The Kimmel Center for The Performing Arts in Philadelphia. Tickets are now available for purchase online at www.kimmelcenter.org, at the venue's box office or by phone at 215-893-1999.

The extravaganza Teddy 25 will be hosted by actress/comedienne Mo'Nique

Florence Anthony

and features musical tributes performed by Patti LaBelle, Stephanie Mills, Musiq and Kindred with special presentations by Bill Cosby and internationally acclaimed dance company Philadanco. Although the night will be filled with several surprise performances, a highlight of the event will be a command performance from Teddy Pendergrass, himself, who will premiere a new song written exclusively for the event and join the other entertainers in an all-star finale.

BLACK 2: Broadway, the exclusive event celebrating the contributions of performers of color in the arts, continues its third year honoring past Tony nominees of color with another all-star event, the 3rd annual Black 2: Broadway Honors the Tony Awards on Sunday, June 10 at the world-famous Lucille's at B.B. King's Blues Club in Manhattan's Times Square. This special celebration will
